

AMBER BOZEMAN

COUNTY EXTENSION
AGENT - URBAN YOUTH DEVELOPMENT -

CONTACT

(806) 789-9221

amber.bozeman@agtamu.edu

Lubbock 79329

SKILLS

- Innovation skills
- Continuous improvement
- Collaborative mindset
- Educational programming

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dynamic Extension Agent with a proven record of innovating educational programming for Texas A&M AgriLife. Cultivated a collaborative mindset, orchestrating community outreach and volunteer training. At Idalou ISD, expertly coordinated dyslexia intervention, enhancing student academic success. Skilled in continuous improvement and data analysis, ensuring impactful service delivery.

EXPERIENCE

May 2022 - Present

Extension Agent-BLT

Texas A&M AgriLife, Lubbock, TX

- Provided Better Living for Texans programming.
- Trained volunteer leaders in effective community outreach techniques.
- Created educational materials and programs For Better Living for Texans programming.
- Compiled reports summarizing research findings related to programming
- Attended conferences
- Analyzed data from participants regarding their experiences with Extension services.
- Organized, advised and participated in community activities and organizations, such as county, and state fair events and 4-H Clubs.

August 2016 - May 2022

Dyslexia Coordinator/ Specialist

Idalou ISD, Idalou, Texas

- Coordinated training sessions for new employees on relevant topics, protocols and strategies for students with dyslexia.
- Developed a comprehensive intervention plan for dyslexic students based on individualized assessments.
- Facilitated parent workshops focusing on understanding the impact of dyslexia on academic performance.
- Participated in IEP meetings as part of an interdisciplinary team focused on developing effective interventions for students diagnosed with Dyslexia.
- Maintained accurate records of all activities related to providing services for individuals with dyslexia according to state regulations and professional standards.

August 2005 - August 2008

Teacher